

Eight Attorneys from Wick Phillips Selected to the Super Lawyers 2016 Texas Rising Stars List

DALLAS, Texas, March 4, 2016 – Eight attorneys from Wick Phillips have been selected to the 2016 Texas Rising Stars list. Each year, Super Lawyers, a Thomson Reuters publication, selects less than 3% of Texas attorneys from more than 70 practice areas to be included on the list. Each attorney selected has attained a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement.

This year Michael Bailey, Joseph Callister, Mario Perez Dolan, Jacob Fain, Ethan Minshull, Noah Nadler, Seema Tendolkar and Robert Wills were all recognized as Texas Rising Stars.

“Our firm is incredibly proud to have so many of our attorneys recognized on the 2016 Texas Rising Stars list,” says Bryan Wick, a founding partner of the firm. “Being selected for Texas Rising Stars demonstrates the exceptional talent and reputation of these attorneys.”

Michael Bailey regularly represents borrowers and lenders in connection with a variety of financing structures including asset-based loans, lien financings, real estate loans and other derivative transactions. He also assists clients with the acquisition and disposition of debt instruments on the secondary market. Michael’s clients include money-center banks, regional banks, finance companies and private investment funds.

Joseph Callister defends clients in a broad spectrum of commercial litigation matters in federal and state courts across Texas and the United States. He has successfully tried several cases and arbitrations, and obtained temporary restraining orders and injunctions. Joseph’s clients range from high net worth individuals to large, publicly traded companies.

Mario Perez Dolan has represented both public and private companies in a broad array of corporate matters including mergers and acquisitions, securities matters, financing transactions, joint ventures, corporate governance, and general corporate matters. He also advises clients on a number of securities matters including, joint ventures, private offerings, venture capital financings, and SEC reporting.

Jacob Fain counsels clients in a broad variety of contract-based disputes, including those related to oil and gas royalties, non-competition and non-solicitation agreements, and purchase and sale agreements. Representing clients from across the United States, as well as entities based in the United Kingdom and Mexico, Jacob has experience in a range of sectors, including manufacturing and distribution, real estate development, and energy.

Michael Bailey

Joseph Callister

Mario Perez Dolan

Jacob Fain

Ethan Minshull

Noah Nadler

Seema Tendolkar

J. Rob Wills, IV

Ethan Minshull has experience working both sides of the docket, representing companies in cases involving breach of contract, fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, tortious interference, deceptive trade practices, and fraudulent transfer claims, as well as significant experience in bankruptcy law. His practice features experience in both state and federal litigation for small business, corporate, and individual clients.

Noah Nadler has successfully represented companies from many different industries in a wide array of complex litigation—with a focus in representing corporate policyholders in litigation involving large claims under all types of insurance policies. He has consistently shown a track record of success representing clients in state and federal court, appeals, arbitrations, negotiations, and proactively protecting clients with thoughtful risk-management strategies.

Seema Tendolkar is a litigator focusing on complex commercial and employment disputes. She also has significant experience conducting internal investigations on behalf of corporations and representing clients during government investigations. Seema represents clients in both federal and state court at the trial and appellate levels, as well as in arbitration proceedings.

J. Rob Wills, IV focuses his practice on the representation of developers, lenders, property owners, landlords and tenants in leasing, acquisition and sales, finance, land-use planning and development transactions. He negotiates land acquisitions and dispositions, ground leases and landlord/tenant leases, and has coordinated land use issues.

Each year, less than three percent of attorneys in Texas are chosen to be included on this prestigious list. For attorneys to be eligible for inclusion in Rising Stars, they must be either 40 years old or younger or practicing for 10 years or less. Each candidate is evaluated and assigned points based on 12 indicators of peer recognition and professional achievement.

Wick Phillips is a full-service business law firm serving clients across Texas and the U.S. The partners of the firm have all joined Wick Phillips after gaining experience at large law firms, bringing a wealth of knowledge and insight with them to our clients. Founded in 2004, the firm has grown to more than 50 attorneys with offices in Dallas, Fort Worth and Austin. The attorneys of Wick Phillips provide practical and efficient legal services to business clients in commercial litigation and appeals, insurance coverage, real estate, corporate, corporate advisory, labor and employment, bankruptcy, creditor's rights and estate planning, intellectual property, and tax. For more information visit www.wickphillips.com

Contact:

Todd Phillips

Wick Phillips

214-692-6200

Todd.phillips@wickphillips.com