Fort Worth Business Press Honors Wick Phillips Partner Jacob Fain with 40 Under 40 Recognition

Fort Worth, Texas, April 16, 2018 – The Fort Worth Business Press (FWBP) has recognized Wick Phillips litigation partner Jacob Fain as one of its 40 Under 40 honorees for 2018. Wick Phillips’ managing partner, David Drez, congratulated Jacob by saying that “we are pleased the FWBP has chosen to honor Jacob this year and recognize the value he brings to clients.”

Jacob counsels clients in a broad variety of contract-based disputes, including those related to oil and gas royalties, non-competition and non-solicitation agreements, and purchase and sale agreements. Super Lawyers named Jacob a Rising Star in March.

The FWBP states that the 40 Under 40 recognizes “40 honorees each year, all under the age of 40, destined for striking accomplishments in their chosen field, from the corporate sector to maverick entrepreneurialism. They are leaders today and are sure to be part of the next generation that will make Tarrant County a great place to live and work.” The FWBP will host an event on April 25 at the Cendera Center to celebrate this year’s honorees.
