

Wick Phillips Strengthens Insurance Coverage and Commercial Litigation Practice Groups with New Partner

DALLAS, Texas, March 7, 2016 – Wick Phillips has strengthened its insurance coverage and commercial litigation practices with the addition of Charles “Chuck” Keeble, Jr., joining the firm as a partner in the Dallas office. In his thirty years of representing clients in complex insurance coverage and litigation matters, Chuck has achieved many notable victories, including a win in the United States Supreme Court.

Chuck has successfully represented clients in state and federal trial courts, the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals and the United States Supreme Court. Prior to joining Wick Phillips, Chuck practiced at an international corporate law firm for nearly twenty-nine years.

“Bringing Chuck on board as a partner at Wick Phillips is a coup for both the firm and our clients,” says Erika Bright, partner and head of the firm’s insurance coverage group. “Chuck has a proven track record of resolving complex insurance matters in a competitive manner. His insight and experience will further enhance the firm’s ability to provide clients with the sophisticated representation they need in this specialized area.”

Wick Phillips is a full-service business law firm serving clients across Texas and the U.S. The partners of the firm have all joined Wick Phillips after gaining experience at large law firms, bringing a wealth of knowledge and insight with them to our clients. Founded in 2004, the firm has grown to more than 50 attorneys with offices in Dallas, Fort Worth and Austin. The attorneys of Wick Phillips provide practical and efficient legal services to business clients in commercial litigation and appeals, insurance coverage, real estate, corporate, corporate advisory, labor and employment, bankruptcy, creditor’s rights and estate planning, intellectual property, and tax.
