Whether he is negotiating a merger or advising on a corporate restructuring, Brad Mahanay is a strategic problem solver committed to the success of his clients. As the Partner in charge of the firm's Corporate Section, he leverages his extensive experience at global law firms and prior in-house experience to provide insightful legal services on a broad range of private equity and corporate finance matters. Beyond just legal counsel, his focus is on a client's ultimate business objectives.

With 25 years of experience in mergers and acquisitions, debt and equity financing, private equity and venture capital investments, clients rely on his skill of crafting efficient and effective solutions. His previous experience includes work at the firms of Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, Patton Boggs LLP and Hughes & Luce, LLP. For three years he was Chief Counsel – M&A and Finance for a worldwide manufacturing company.

Brad has led the acquisition and sale of many businesses across an array of industries, such as manufacturing, oil field services, healthcare, retail and service. His experience includes transactions in the United States, Canada, Mexico, Brazil, Taiwan, China and Germany and many transactions with bankrupt debtors.

Brad has also led many loan transactions for both lenders and borrowers. These transactions include senior secured loans, asset based loans, and mezzanine loans.
