

Brant Martin Board Certified in Civil Trial Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization

Dallas, Texas, January 12, 2024 – Wick Phillips commercial litigation partner Brant Martin is now one of only 1% of lawyers Board Certified in Civil Trial Law in the State of Texas.

Brant is a civil trial attorney in the Litigation section of Wick Phillips, focusing on all facets of trial and commercial litigation, from pre-lawsuit disputes, through discovery, jury selection, argument, and post-verdict practice. He has represented and counseled clients in Texas and around the United States across a broad spectrum of industries, including financial institutions, medical devices, investment funds and their sponsors, and gaming. Brant appeared before the U.S. Supreme Court in early 2022 to present an argument which resulted in a favorable 5-4 decision for our clients.

The Texas Board of Legal Specialization describes Civil Trial Law as involving “litigation of civil controversies in all areas of substantive law before state and federal courts. Lawyers in this area represent individuals and businesses in a wide range of civil matters.” Standards for attorney certification are to recognize those attorneys having special competence in a specialty area and include an evaluation of attorney experience, as well as a rigorous application and testing process.
