For more than 20 years, Erika Bright has litigated and counseled on complex insurance coverage, indemnity, business and construction disputes throughout all major industries.

Recognized as a leading authority on insurance coverage and commercial litigation, Erika has devoted her practice to protecting clients and finding insurance recovery in their time of need. Erika represents corporate policyholders in disputes with insurance carriers and advises clients on all insurance-related topics, including how to minimize risk, draft indemnity agreements and obtain optimum insurance coverage.

Erika has extensive experience in the courtroom and has litigated insurance disputes involving virtually all types of coverage, including Directors and Officers (D&O), Errors and Omissions (E&O), Fiduciary Liability, Commercial General Liability (CGL), Property, Builder's Risk, Employer's Liability, Environmental and Energy policies.

Additionally, Erika is an accomplished lecturer and author on insurance issues and frequently speaks at industry conferences, events and law schools nationwide. Ms. Bright serves as Faculty Member and lecturer for the Texas Bar CLE's Advanced Insurance Law Course and UT Law CLE's Annual Insurance Law Institute. She has authored and contributed to many leading publications, such as the ABA's Handbook on Additional Insureds and Law 360.

Prior to joining Wick Phillips, Erika was a partner at Haynes and Boone, LLP in the firm's insurance coverage and business litigation practice groups.
