Wick Phillips Awarded 2021 Global M&A Network Turnaround Atlas Award

Dallas, Texas, June 25, 2021 – Wick Phillips has been recognized by the Global M&A Network for its work on a deal honored at a virtual 2021 Turnaround Atlas Awards ceremony held June 23-25, 2021. This prestigious independently governed honor is awarded to the best value-creating transactions, outstanding firms, professionals and leaders from the global restructuring, insolvency, and distressed investing communities.

Wick Phillips' representation of Gold's Gym (GGI Holdings) Chapter 11 restructuring and acquisition by RSG Group GmbH won in the category of Cross Border Special Situation M&A Deal of the Year. "It is an honor to be recognized for our work on this deal," says Jason Rudd, Wick Phillips partner who led the deal team that represented Golds Gym. The team also included partner Lauren Drawhorn and associate Scott Lawrence.

The Wick Phillips Commercial Bankruptcy practice group represents clients at all phases of the restructuring and reorganization process, from pre-bankruptcy filing advice and strategy through the post-confirmation period.
