Wick Phillips Partner Rob Wills Recognized as Life Fellow of the Dallas Bar Foundation

Dallas, Texas, April 20, 2026 – Wick Phillips announces that managing partner and co-head of the firm’s real estate practice group, Rob Wills has been selected as a Life Fellow of the Dallas Bar Foundation.

The Dallas Bar Foundation is a 501(c)(3) focused on creating cycles of success in the Dallas community through scholarships, student clerkships, and educational programs which inspire the next generation of lawyers. Established in 1971, the Foundation’s mission is to empower the existing and future legal community in Dallas through scholarships, clerkships, and charitable legal initiatives and to help preserve the historical significance of past generations of lawyers in our community. Since 1981, the Foundation has funded 75 Hughes Scholars through multi-year tuition scholarships, allowing outstanding law students to attend the SMU Dedman School of Law, UNT Dallas College of Law, and Texas A&M University and complete a legal education many would have thought beyond reach. For more information, visit the DBF website.

Being a Life Fellow of the Dallas Bar Foundation represents a special honor and is recognition of Rob’s dedication and commitment to service, professional excellence and philanthropy. His membership as a Fellow supports the mission of the Dallas Bar Foundation in promoting a furtherance of justice, providing for student scholarships and clerkships, supporting law related education, and charitable and legal assistance to the underserved in our community.

Rob will be recognized as a new Life Fellow at the 32nd Dallas Bar Foundation Luncheon later this month.
