Stafford Brantley is an associate in the litigation section of Wick Phillips and focuses on complex commercial litigation, oil and gas litigation, bankruptcy, and arbitration matters.

Prior to joining Wick Phillips, Stafford served as a law clerk for United States District Court Judge Mark T. Pittman in the Northern District of Texas. Before clerking, Stafford practiced in litigation with a firm in south Texas. During law school, Stafford interned for Chief Justice Bonnie Sudderth and Judge Pittman of the Fort Worth Court of Appeals and in the appellate division of the Harris County District Attorney's office. Stafford served as co-chair of the Board of Advocates in law school, participated in numerous national moot court competitions, and was inducted into the Order of the Barristers.
