

Taylor Westbrook

Technical Advisor

Dallas

taylor.westbrook@wickphillips.com

T: 214.420.4093

F: 214.692.6255

Taylor Westbrook is a technical advisor in the Dallas office of Wick Phillips specializing in patent application preparation, technical art evaluation and patentability analysis. Taylor's technical expertise is in the mechanical and chemical arts, being very knowledgeable in process design, especially in the fields of safety, fluid dynamics and simulation technology.

Prior to joining Wick Phillips, Taylor worked at the Dallas office of the IP boutique firm of Conley Rose, where she gained experience in patent preparation and prosecution. Taylor also gained work experience during an internship within the research and development division of Eastman Chemical Company, Longview, Texas.

All Practice Areas

- Intellectual Property
- Patents

Education

- Texas A&M University (B.S., Chemical Engineering, 2012)