

Wick Phillips Adds Two Commercial Litigation Attorneys

DALLAS, Texas, February 18, 2016 – Wick Phillips is pleased to announce the expansion of the firm’s commercial litigation team with the addition of Greg Brassfield and Zachary Farrar. Greg and Zachary have experience representing clients in a variety of disputes, including those relating to oil and gas, banking, breach of contract disputes, fiduciary duty, professional responsibility and intellectual property.

Greg Brassfield honed his legal skills at a nationally recognized litigation boutique firm, where he represented both plaintiffs and defendants in complex civil litigation. While attending Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law, Greg clerked with both the United States Attorney’s Office and Judge Charlene Honeywell of the Middle District of Florida.

Zachary Farrar comes from a Fort Worth litigation boutique firm and has represented clients in oil and gas, banking, breach of contract disputes and landlord-tenant disputes. He graduated magna cum laude from Texas A&M University School of Law, where he was a member of the Texas A&M Law Review. He also holds a bachelor’s degree from Centenary College of Louisiana, where he earned the 2011 Frost School of Business Top Finance Major Award.
